

104TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2113

To renew and extend patents relating to certain devices that aid in the acceleration of bodily tissue healing and the reduction of pain.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 25, 1995

Mr. ACKERMAN introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To renew and extend patents relating to certain devices that aid in the acceleration of bodily tissue healing and the reduction of pain.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. EXTENSION OF PATENT.

4 The Secretary of Commerce, acting through the Com-
5 missioner of Patents and Trademarks, shall, when the pat-
6 ent numbered 4,226,246 (relating to an apparatus for 7 maintaining the negative potential of human, animal, and
8 plant cells) expires, extend the patent, with all the rights
9 pertaining thereto, for a period of 10 years beginning on 10 the date of the patent's expiration.

1 SEC. 2. RENEWAL AND EXTENSION OF PATENTS.

2 (a) RENEWAL AND EXTENSION.—The Secretary of
3 Commerce, acting through the Commissioner of Patents,
4 shall renew and extend each of the patents described in 5 subsection (b), with all the rights pertaining thereto, for
6 a period of 10 years beginning on the date of the patent's
7 renewal and extension. The Secretary shall take the ac-
8 tions required by this section as soon as possible, but not
9 later than 60 days after the date of the enactment of this 10 Act.

11 (b) DESCRIPTION OF PATENTS.—Subsection (a) shall 12 apply to the patents bearing the following numbers:

13 (1) 3,670,737 (relating to an ultra-short wave
14 athermapeutic (non-thermal pulsed high-peak high-
15 frequency electromagnetic energy) apparatus).

16 (2) 3,566,877 (relating to an electrotherma-
17 peutic apparatus and treatment head, and method
18 for tuning the treatment head).

19 (3) 3,464,010 (relating to a power meter for an 20 athermapeutic apparatus).

21 (4) 3,181,535 (relating to an athermapeutic ap-22 paratus).

23 (5) 3,043,310 (relating to a treatment head for 24 an athermapeutic apparatus).

25 (c) INTERVENING RIGHTS.—The renewal and exten-
26 sion of the patents described in subsection (b) shall not

1 result in infringement of any of the patents on account
2 of any use of the subject matter of the patent if such use,
3 or substantial preparation for such use, began after the 4 patent expired but before the date of the enactment of 5 this Act.
